dedication -

In the years of 1963-64, the officers of this Seminary have chosen to honor our beloved President, David O. Mc Kay, by centering the graduation exercises around him. Therefore, I, too, am putting forth my best efforts "In Honor of a Prophet."

But I am also putting forth these best efforts in honor of another man who has influenced my life more than any other. So I now dedicate this book of history to a man I respect and admire, Brother Arthur Bassett.

Seminary Presents Show On Wednesday Night

Tonight, at 8:00 p. m. at the Avon Theatre, the Seminary Social and Fund Raising Project is to be held. All High School and Jr. High kids are invited to be present. Charge is 50c to students for the movie.

Plans are underway for the Spring Banquet to be held on May 1st and Seminary Graduation, May 24.

Brother and Sister Reeve are the proud parents of a 7½ lb. baby boy. Their son was born, of all times, on Friday, March 13th.

Many Seminary students are participating in Ward Sacrament meetings around the stake. Very few talks and musical numbers are being presented.

SEMINARY NAMES OFFICERS
FOR COMING YEAR

Studentbody officers for the school year of 1963-64 have been chosen for seminary. They are: Dee Hicken, Dee Hicken, Beth Jone, Claudia Muir, Sue Ann Smith and Jason Moulton are the new officers of the Heber Seminary.

president; Jason Moulton, First Vice President; Claudia Muir, 2nd Vice President; Beth Jones, Secretary, and Sue Ann Smith, Historian.

An executive meeting was held at the home of Rex Reeves on Wednesday, September 25th. Present at the meeting were the new Seminary officers and the different class representatives.

Representing the 9th Grade Book of Mormon Class were Peter Jenkins and Linda Carlile, while Craig Ford and Marlene Wright will represent the tenth grade New Testament Class. For the eleventh grade Church History, Mark Van Wagoner and Deanna Young, and Ashley Fish and Karen Plummer will be the Fourth-Year representatives.

Plans for this year were discussed and chili, punch and doughnuts were served to the group.

Mr. Earl Beck calls out the steps to a dance at the opening social of the 1964 seminary year. It turned out to be a big success, contrary to fears that some had.

Saturday, the 14th of September, the Seminary had a surprise opening. Bros. Reeve and Preece were the supervisors. Everyone who attended were very entertained Sue Ann Smith's partner couldn't take it any longer.

by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beck from Pleasant Grove. They taught round dances and square dances. Refreshments were then served. Everyone enjoyed either the dancing or the refreshments or both.

Gloria Wall makes a cute boy, doesn't she?

Bro. Reeve and Bro. Preece left
Bro. Conners to do the dirty work.

Nobody was left out at this dance.

Jason Moulton has a naughty gleam in his eye, don't you think?

Bro. Reeve's and Bro. Preece's true nature are revealed in this picture.

Carolyn Bethers is getting a kick out of something!

This is one of Hohn Miller's rare public appearances.

Judy Zenger is presented with the turkey she won in the Thanksgiving essay contest. Bishop Harold H. Smith donated the Turkey. Dee Hicken represents the student-body officers.

Bro. Rex Reeve, Dee Hicken, Judy Zenger, Bro. Bruce Preece and Bro. Roger Conners are pleased with the way the contest turned out.

SEMINARY STUDENTS TO ATTEND BYU TESTIMONIAL

The Seminary faculty, officers and studentbody worked diligently in their efforts to raise funds for the furnishing of the new seminary. Their ability as expert salesmen was demonstrated as the money came rolling in from ticket sales to the wonderful performance of the Delta Phi Kappa Chorus, the returned missionary fraternity from the campus of the Aggies. This wonderful male chorus entertained the community as well as the seminary studentbody with their delightful singing.

The Juniors and Seniors are looking forward to their exciting trip to the testimonial meeting on the campus of Brigham Young University on Thursday, February 6, 1964. They are planning a tour of the lovely campus before the inspirational meeting and a friendly get-together with refreshments after the meeting.

SEMINARY SUBS FOR SANTA

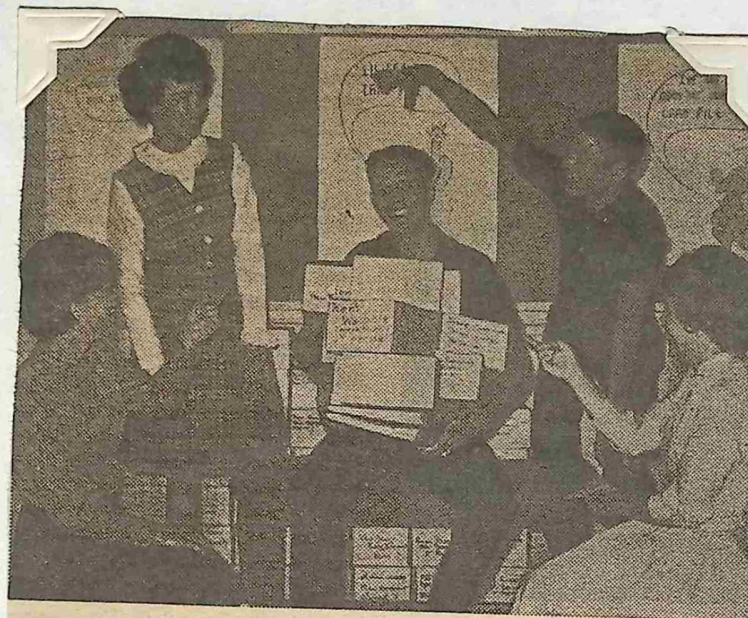

Heber Seminary Students had a chance to play Santa recently. Ninety-one LDS Indian students, located on Nebraska and Nevada schools, received Christmas gifts with letters from local seminary pupils this past Christmas season.

Presents were sent to Indians from ages 6-19. Two Heber students wrapped a gift for one Indian, enclosing a letter telling about the school, church and community life in Heber Valley. Seminary bundled the packages and mailed them in plenty of time for delivery.

Taken from the reservation, the Indian boys and girls attend school youth camps provided by the United States government. About twenty per cent of these youngsters belong to the LDS church and may go to seminaries provided by the church and arranged on a weekly basis.

The division of seminaries and Institutes of Religion of the Unified Church School System has inaugurated a program of compiling and filing materials for current and future reference on the part of all seminary students throughout the Church. It provides for student acquisition of articles, scriptures, talks by leaders of the Church, poems, articles and other items having to do with 40 subjects.

The new filing system will provide students with know how and motivation to acquire materials on all Gospel and Church subjects.

This will prove helpful, not only in preparing young people for missions, but will become an incentive in the filing of important materials throughout their lives.

The program has been received with enthusiasm in the seminaries of the Church, from the East Coast, to Hawaii, said William E. Berrett, administrator of seminaries and Institutes of Religion.

Typical of the interest manifested by seminary students all over the Church is that of the Heber, Utah, Seminary, where all 372 students are engaged in setting up the new card filing system. Principal E. Bruce Preece, assisted by seminary student officer, has been busy explaining the complete filing program to every seminary class.

Delta Phi Kappa Chorus to Sing for Seminary Fund Benefit

DELTA PHI KAPPA CHORUS— This outstanding choral group will perform on Thursday evening (tonight) in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle for Wasatch County residents. The group is noted for their previous highly-praised performances throughout the intermountain area. The group is composed of returned missionaries who attended the Utah State University at Logan.

On the evening of January 23, 1964, in the Tabernacle, the Delta Phi Kappa chorus of the Utah State University, performed, headed by Prof. James L. Bradley.

The group was formed in December 1959 with approximately 24 members. No entrance requirements were necessary other than being a returned missionary. Since that time the group has grown and it has become necessary to hold auditions for entrance into the organization.

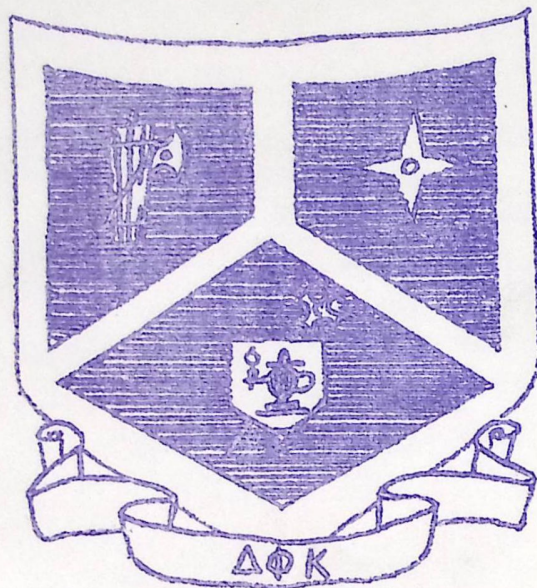

Having made several successful tours, the chorus is now on its way east, stopping for their performance in Heber.

With their varied program, it should prove to be one of the outstanding musical presentations of the year, and the Seminary is proud to sponsor them.

A Winning Poem —

A Legion of an Angel

by Susan Cummings

Through this world of toil and care;
Runs a shimmering road straight and fair.
Its surroundings are somewhat dark and grim
Temptation, evil, abuse, and sin.
Not many travelers pass this way;
It's many travelers a hard road to follow with much delay.
But whenever you look at this hard-earned place,
You will see one God-like face.
On his head is a crown of snowy white hair.
In his eyes are a look of tenderness and care.
His skin is wrinkled from years of work;
He is faithful to God although Satan does lurk.
He pauses a moment and turns his head;
"Press on! Press on!" are the words he said.
"That great day is nearing, there's no time to waste;"
"Be faithful, pray often, make haste, make haste."
He continues his journey through temptation and sin;
His life in the distance his goal is in sight;
He will lead God's people to salvation and light.
When he leaves this earth — the end of that shimmering road;
God's work he has left, a heavenly path he has sowed;
A legion of angels will sing to him praise;
Of his life before, and his earthly ways.
I will pattern my life after that of this man;
I will live before God the best that I can.
I will always remember the righteous way;
"Of our prophet and leader David O. McKay —"

A Winning Poem -

President David O. McKay
by Lora Jean Curtis

As the light in the harbor beckons ships who have lost their way—
So does the light from his soul beckon those who have gone astray.
His life is an inspiration in a world where evil reigns,
And I know God sent him here, the mysteries to explain.
He is all that God intended a prophet of man to be;
He is humble and pure and kind in heart and filled with integrity.
His heart is filled with love for God and his fellowmen,
And in the service of Christ and God his life has always been.
His name will live forever in the book of righteousness
And in the hearts of Godly men his honor they will bless.
And when his life is ended and he's gone beyond the sun,
God will take him with loving arms, and say, "My son, well done."
